1. From approximately 17 August to 20 August 1950, Yugoslav authorities organized the clandestine distribution of leaflets in Bulgaria in the area between Dimitrovgrad and Vojka.
2. The leaflets bore the heading, "The Truth about Yugoslavia." They sought to refute Bulgarian propaganda which stated that the Yugoslav Government is jailing refugees from Pirin Macedonia. The leaflets cited specific cases when the Bulgarian Government exiled undesirable elements from the Pirin area. Furthermore, the leaflets denied Bulgarian charges against Yugoslavia and denounced the activity and motives of the Bulgarian Government.
